

Why Change Commissioners?

Commitment to the job

Just one objective - make Palmetto a better place to live

Bring a new perspective to city government

Business experience and enthusiasm to make city government work better

Enhance how our city works

I know how technology can improve how our city operates and appears

FRESH IDEAS FOR OUR CITY

Alan Clark

Meet Alan Clark

Born in April 1948. Grew up in a small town that was a lot like Palmetto

Finished school & moved to Atlanta, GA. in 1974

Married a Palmetto girl (DeAnn Quisenberry), in 1986, We have 2 daughters, 2 granddaughters & a grandson

Business Experience

Moved to Atlanta in 1974, establishing a small business

Joined McDonnell Douglas, in 1984 providing design and manufacturing solutions for high tech companies

In 1993 I led the creation of EDS's e-Commerce Program

Recruited by IBM 1995 to transition the company to the Internet. Named as a Smithsonian Laureate for work done with IBM

Returned to Atlanta in 1999 as a Senior Director with BellSouth

Formed consulting practice in 2002

Relocated family & business to Palmetto in 2003

As Your Commissioner
I want to:

Increase Communication &
Transparency

Do things that are key to our lifestyle and quality of life

Modernize City Government to cut costs and improve services

Alan Clark
1527 5th ST W
Palmetto, FL 34221

Alan Clark
for Palmetto

Political advertisement paid for & approved by Alan Clark for Palmetto City Council Ward 3

Vote for Alan Clark
Ward 3
Commissioner

Enriching “old Palmetto,” with a new perspective